

Elder and Mrs. Dark are away on a two weeks' vacation.

Carlos Nelson is spending his vacation in Lawrence, Mass.

A. Aubin had a Bell telephone installed in his house last week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Steel Wednesday, August 21.

Lucius Sanborn has improved his buildings recently by a coat of paint.

Mrs. Charles Cutting and daughter, Zora, are visiting her father, James Brown.

Mrs. Welland Shepard and Vera and Harold Miller returned from Boston last week.

Harry Clifford is working in the C. P. railroad flour sheds and boarding at M. N. Fuller's.

Mrs. E. C. Hunt of Westmore is spending a few weeks with her niece, Mrs. H. K. Cousins.

Elder Daniel Gregory is attending camp-meeting at Magog, which commenced last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyer went to Troy, N. Y., last week where they are engaged in Salvation Army work.

Elder Charles McClure went to Ayer's Cliff last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Edward Vang'an.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Clark and children and Mr. and Mrs. James McGowan visited at H. L. Dailey's last week.

H. K. Cousins went to Beebe Plain last Sunday morning to fill Elder Gregory's appointment in his absence.

Remember the races on the Memphremagog trotting park, West Derby, August 27 and 28, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Merrill returned last week from New Hampshire where they were visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClure are spending a few days at Alton Bay, N. H., attending Advent camp-meeting now in session there.

Mr. Heath and his staff are cleaning the school house and getting ready for the fall term of school, which commences the first week in September.

The alarm of fire was rung at an early hour Saturday, which proved to be in the pool rooms. The hose company was soon on the spot and the fire put out before very much damage was done.

GLOVER.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fernald of Malden, Mass., are guests at Golden Lake Farm.

Mrs. Villa Rich of Newport was a guest of the Parkers at Pioneer Cottage last week.

Mrs. H. E. Dawing is in Morgan, helping to care for her sister, Mrs. Cargill, who is very ill.

H. V. Tittlemore and little son of Concord, N. H., were in town last week calling on friends and relatives.

Miss Emma Watson, who has been at the Maples for some weeks, has returned to her home in Malden, Mass.

Ruth Templeton has recently been visiting her sister at Camp Comfort. She went to her home in Montpelier last Saturday.

WEST GLOVER.

Mrs. Agnes Cook and son, Lewis, visited in Worcester last week.

Mrs. R. W. Buchanan is entertaining relatives from Lowell, Mass.

Mabel Ross from St. Johnsbury visited her sister, Mrs. C. F. Wright, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Lovelette from Richford attended the fair and visited at Henry Paquette's.

Mrs. Lapman, who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Stevens, has returned to her home in Canada.

Mrs. H. W. Paquette entertained her father and other relatives from Wolcott and Morrisville during the fair.

Mrs. Addie Carr and daughter, Ruth, from Manchester, N. H., are visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Hazel Miles, a girl 10 years old, was raking hay one day recently when the horse began to run and kick. Hazel jumped and thereby saved injury.

GREENSBORO.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olmstead were in Barnet recently.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Barrett of Cabot were in town Tuesday.

Several from this town attended the fair at Barton last week.

A. E. Perrin and family are spending a few days at Willoughby lake.

Mrs. J. H. Barrington is spending a few days with her parents in Cabot.

Several from this town went on the excursion to Ausable Chasm Friday, Aug. 23.

C. C. Haines of Lakeport, N. H., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. F. S. Melvin.

Geo. King drove the cream team for F. A. Messer during the absence of H. H. Haines.

Mrs. Mary McMillen has finished her work for Mrs. F. H. Dufur and returned home.

Herbert Perham has finished work for M. Outhbertson and has gone to Unionville, Mass.

A party of the summer visitors gave a select dance at the town hall the evening of August 21.

Rev. C. F. Carter preached an interesting sermon at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Haines, Miss Beth Cook and P. N. Allen have been on a carriage drive to Mt. Mansfield.

The address given by Mrs. Herbert Turrell Sunday evening at the Congregational church was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Perrin, who have been spending a few days at Willoughby lake, have returned home.

W. S. Jackson, who has been spending his summer vacation with his father, L. A. Jackson, has returned to his home in Waltham, Mass.

GREENSBORO BEND.

Leon Gray has returned from Swanton.

Peter Blair visited friends in town over Sunday.

A. C. Chase was in Wolcott on business Monday.

Harvey Bean from Danville is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Agnes Joslyn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bradley.

W. S. Boynton of St. Johnsbury was here on business Tuesday.

John T. and James Ritchie of St. Johnsbury were here on business Thursday.

B. D. Piper has bought the Oliver Martell place. Possession given September 1.

Mrs. Sumner Hill went to Brownington Wednesday intending to be away from home about ten days.

Mrs. Clara Collins and Mrs. Florence Valencourt spent Tuesday at Frank Fay's on Hardwick street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Goosey of Manchester, N. H., who have been staying with Gilbert Blair for the past week, returned home Thursday.

IRASBURG.

John Willey was on the sick list last week.

Miss Mary Knapp visited friends in Johnson Thursday.

The Irasburg Cornet band played at Barton fair Friday.

Mrs. Nathan Nichols is visiting her daughter in Derby.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Heath visited friends in Newport last week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lanou Monday, Aug. 19.

Charles Bailey of Hinsdale, N. H., is visiting his uncle, C. D. Bailey.

Orlando Page has moved from the old hotel into the John Colton house.

Miss LaDuke of Montreal is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gilman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cheney of Brownington visited at Arthur Miles' Friday.

Asa Baldwin of Montpelier is visiting his brothers, R. N. and C. M. Baldwin.

Miss May Wheeler is camping with friends at Parker pond in West Glover.

Mrs. Alden Willis of Newport Center visited her brother, George Kenison, Friday.

Rev. J. Poeton is taking a vacation and with his family is camping at Baker pond.

James Gray and family of Derby were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miles last week.

Eugene Simino and family of Keene, N. H., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Simino.

Mrs. Nancy Clark of Evansville is spending a few weeks with Mrs. M. J. Leonard and Mrs. Thomas Smith.

The friends of Roy Morey were saddened to hear of the death of his wife, which occurred at Westmore Friday.

Byron Clement of Suncook, N. H., and Marshall Clement of Barton Landing visited at E. P. Webster's Thursday.

Mrs. Geraldine Jameson, who has been quite ill, is recovering. Her son, Harry Clark, of Norwood, N. Y., is visiting her.

The Irasburg ball team played the Barton Landing team at that place August 17 and won the game by a score of 3 to 4.

Mrs. Thomas Smith has gone to Fishers Island, Conn., to visit her husband, who has spent the summer there, and he will return with her.

The young ladies of the I. O. G. T. will present the play "Miss Fearless & Co." at Court-house hall, Friday evening, Aug. 30. The Irasburg band will be in attendance. Remember the date and plan to attend. Proceeds to help pay for the piano.

A public meeting of M. W. of A. will be held at Court-house hall Saturday evening, Aug. 31. An address will be given by State Deputy A. O. Palmer of Burlington on "Woodcraft." A male quartette will be in attendance and there will be reading by local talent. The Irasburg band will furnish music.

Monday evening over 100 of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lee gave them a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lee. The evening was very pleasantly spent. Ice cream and cake were served, after which Leo Cook in a pleasing manner presented Mr. and Mrs. Lee a beautiful willow rocker, a set of silver knives and forks, spoons, several pieces of china and cut glass. Mr. and Mrs. Lee expressed their appreciation of the gifts in a few well chosen words, and the company turned their steps homeward at the midnight hour, feeling they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

LOWELL.

Mr. and Mrs. Camon are visiting in town.

Mrs. Wilcox is visiting her sister, Mrs. Durivage.

A daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weed.

Miss Julia Murphy is home from New York for a visit of a few weeks.

H. B. Parker of North Troy visited his brother V. M. Parker, Tuesday of last week.

Rufus Kinsley is entertaining his sister and two brothers for a few weeks' visit.

Mr. Merrill of Richford was a recent caller in town. He made the trip in his automobile.

Miss Mabel Durivage of Concord, N. H., is at her brother's spending her vacation of a few weeks.

Miss Mable Kelley of Richford spent a few days in town last week as guest of her cousin, Miss Angie Kelley.

Mrs. Henry Parkhurst and daughter of North Troy recently visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Sanborn.

The ladies are rehearsing for a play entitled "Miss Fearless & Co.," which they will play in the near future. Watch for the posters.

Steve Murphy was thrown out of his wagon by his horse getting frightened at an automobile one day last week. The wagon and harness were broken but Mr. Murphy was not injured seriously.

The Rev. J. Lavinge pastor of the Catholic church was pleasantly surprised Sunday, Aug. 18, after services with a package containing $109.58 from his congregation. It was presented by Misses Mamie Decker, May Brahana and Dora Martin. A presentation address for the occasion was read by Miss Decker.

MORGAN.

O. P. Wilcox is preparing material to build a cottage on the lake shore.

Rev. I. W. McLaughlin will preach next Sunday at the South church at the regular hour.

Lee Elliott is soon to close his labor for his father and will move to Clyde Dargis's.

Mrs. B. J. Cox has been very sick the past week. She is under the care of Dr. Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor and daughter, Roxie, of Attleboro, Mass., are visiting in town.

Bert Gee has finished work for Clyde Dargin and is going to Norwich to run a hay press.

Geo. Calkins is moving to West Charleston. He will have an auction at his late residence August 28.

Claud Peary and Elmer Holmes had a narrow escape from serious injury last Monday by their horses backing a load of hay into Allen's mill pond.

MORGAN CENTER.

Mrs. B. J. Williams is ill.

B. J. Williams lost a sheep by bears last week.

A. A. Burroughs has been quite ill the past week.

Mrs. Davenport from Montpelier is the guest of friends here.

Harvey Goodsell has returned to his home in Haverhill, Mass.

Mrs. William Crowe from Island Pond was in town last week.

Joseph Gilman and family from Haverhill, Mass., are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Emma Towle from Barton Landing visited relatives here the past week.

Mrs. Luella Palmer from West Charleston is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. H. Ainsworth.

Mrs. J. A. Gray is ill and staying with friends in Newport. She has many friends here who are hoping for her recovery.

NEWPORT.

In accordance with the requirements of the state department of education, examinations for admission to the secondary schools will be held August 29 and 30 at the Newport high school. These examinations are to be for those who desire to attend high schools in other towns and whose tuition are to be paid by the towns in which they reside. Applicants for free tuition will be examined Thursday, Aug. 29, in arithmetic, grammar, physiology, geography; on Friday, Aug. 30, in U. S. history, civil government, spelling. These examinations will include questions concerning the geography, history and government of Vermont.

NEWPORT CENTER.

Mrs. N. S. Rogers is very ill. Miss Rena Sherian teaches in the Gore.

The village schools will begin September 3.

Miss Elida Kilby will teach in the Wright District.

Severa from here attended Barton fair last week.

The C. P. R. have begun the work on the under pass in this place, which means a good thing to both place and town.

The Modern Woodmen of America will give a free promenade at the G. A. R. hall Tuesday evening Sept. 3, 1907. All are requested to come and hear what we have to say.

TROY.

Mrs. Albert Stewart has been visiting relatives in Lowell.

Warren Farman has moved into Mrs. Haselton's tenement.

Miss Martha Borland is home from Chester for a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Martin have been visiting at Barton Landing.

Mrs. George Shepard and daughter Dorothea are spending a week here.

Mrs. Nettie Phillips is having extensive repairs made on her house and barn.

Max Albee has gone to Woodstock, N. H., to visit his brothers Fred and Ralph.

Clinton Goodnough of Barton Landing was a recent visitor at Warren Farman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Edmunds and three children of Coventry are visiting in town.

There will be an ice cream social at the vestry Tuesday evening, Aug. 27. Everyone invited.

John Connor and daughter, Mrs. Maud Morway, attended the reunion of the 6th Vermont at Morrisville, recently.

A large number from this place attended the Barton fair, and all pronounce the trotting and vaudeville attractions good.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hartwell have gone to Barton Landing where Mr. Hartwell has employment with the E. L. Chandler Company.

Damon Stanford of Montpelier and Mrs. Nettie Stanford Rockwell of Hardwick are visiting their sister, Mrs. Elmer Rockwell.

Wells Woods of Richford has been in town renewing old acquaintances. Mrs. Woods, who has been here several weeks, returned home with him.

H. A. Buck is soon to move his family to Boston where he has bought an interest in a grocery store. We are sorry to have Mr. Buck's people leave town.

WESTFIELD.

Winfred Hentrix is home from Newport for the present.

A party of young people ascended Jay Peak last Thursday.

Morris A. Lawrence is in Richford visiting his sister, Mrs. Byron Lyon.

Mrs. Elvira Brown has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Freeman Farman of Lowell.

Geo. W. Miller has sold his span of work horses to Andrew J. Crawford, consideration, $225.

Mrs. Ida Johnson of Providence, R. I., wife of Judge Johnson, visited Mrs. Ed Boynton last week.

Perley Severance of East St. Johnsbury has been in town visiting M. H. Dodge and Geo. J. Benware.

Will W. Bryant's son Alvin, who has been very ill with symptoms of typhoid fever, is much better.

Mr. Snow has been here visiting his family at R. B. Paul's. Mrs. Paul is recovering from tonsillitis.

Mrs. Caroline Miller is visiting in Newport. Mrs. Edna Miller of Troy is visiting her daughter Mrs. E. L. Miller.

Francis Jacques is putting a furnace and bath room into his house. J. S. Pike of North Troy is doing the work.

Deputy Sheriff G. W. Miller was on duty as policeman at the Barton fair last week. Several from here attended the fair.

Mrs. O. W. Bailey and two daughters visited Mrs. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Titus of Dunkin, Que., last week.

The Misses Margery and Anna Elkins of North Troy have been visiting at O. P. Wright's. W. G. Wright's and Dr. Young's.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bailey and two children of Mansfield, Que., were guests of Mr. Bailey's brother, Orrin W. Bailey, recently.

Mrs. Abbie Fairbanks was called to Newport last week to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law Miss Laura Fairbanks, which was held there on Thursday, Aug. 23.

It is expected that on Sunday, Sept. 1, the Rev. Edwin T. Hurd of New Hampshire will preach in the Congregational church as a candidate for the pastorate.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bryant of Bolton, Que., visited at C. W. Bryant's recently and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bryant of Bolton, Que., visited at C. W. Bryant's last week.

Miss Bessie Root has been engaged to teach the sixth and seventh grades in the school at Newport Center. It is reported that Miss Alice Gilbert is to teach in Westminister.

Last Wednesday Mr. Sawyer, a government inspector, was here looking at the mail routes with a view to lengthening Benware's route and shortening the star route of Perkins.

Mrs. Mary Hoyt, widow of the late H. B. Hoyt of Potton, Que., has been here visiting Joseph Goddard and other old friends. Mrs. Hoyt is in better health than when she moved to Potton last March.

Rev. F. A. Jenkins preached his farewell sermon Sunday, Aug. 25, and administered the communion. The first of the present week he and his family go to their new home in East Concord, N. H. We are sorry to have them leave.

On the afternoon of Saturday, Aug. 17, the church people gave Rev. and Mrs. Jenkins a farewell reception in the parlors of the Congregational church. Cake and ice cream were served. Mrs. Jenkins attaining the age of twenty-nine years on that day, the people presented her with a purse of money.

CONTINUED ON PAGE EIGHT.

"Take Me Back To Old Vermont"

Latest song hit. Vermonters everywhere should own copy. Takes you back to childhood days. Words and melody perfect. Send today for copy. By mail 25c. VERMONT MUSIC COMPANY, Rutland Vt. 24-25

WOOL CARDING.

Barton Woolen Mill. Washing, Carding and Greasing, 12c. per lb. Carding and Greasing, 8c.

Wool left at Geo. W. Brackett's Store, West Charleston; W. W. Coe's Store, West Burke; last shipment Nov. 10th; the Seaver Store, North Troy, one shipment September 19th; F. W. Carr's Store, Newport, two shipments, August 1st and October 5th; carded and returned at 5c per bundle extra. Parties sending wool within 20 miles where there are no agents will be allowed freight one way on 50 pounds, or both ways on 100 pound lots weighed after carded. Hand spun Yarns, Rols Ladies dress flannel and heavy wool remnants for sale. Orders may be left at Agencies. Season at mill closes December 1. Then E. O. W. until Nov. 1.

LIV-R-DIDS CURE CONSTIPATION

Dr. Oldman's famous Prescription permanently cures Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache. Price 25 Cents.

Shows of 1906, when a lot of horses were shown in harness the Percheron was the leading winner. Now is the time to get together and make arrangements for the purchase of a fine bred Percheron Stallion to use for the coming winter. Am prepared to organize a Stock company for the purchase of the same, and shall offer a limited number of shares at $100 each. Lloyds or Indians and Ohio Live Stock Insurance Co. will insure him against draft from any cause. Have an arrangement with the leading horse importers of America and if you will pay cash can get you a stallion for one thousand dollars less than that traveling salesman will sell you an imported horse.

E. L. GRAVES, West Glover, Vt.

BARTON ACADEMY AND GRADED SCHOOL

Fall Term Opens, Sept. 3, '07

Prepares for College. Equips for Practical Life work. Efficient corps of teachers

Begin your course now and graduate from the new building.

Students desiring work or further information or parties having work for students, apply to

H. J. STANNARD, Prin., Barton, Vt.

Long Evenings For Reading

The long autumn and winter evenings are an excellent time for reading, sewing or study; but the eyes should be considered

Glasses relieve the strain and should be supplied early before these faithful servants become overtired.

Consult your optician; he will tell you what is needed.

GEO. C. LANG.

Scientific Optician, office at Lang's Jewelry Store. Barton, BOTH PHONES. Vermont

After The Fair Still AT Work

The watch that goes wrong (or won't go at all), the ring, with missing stone, the brooch needing new pin or catch, the chain with broken link or swivel, the old fashioned jewelry now so much prized, that needs repairing or making over—all these and many others pass through our repair department every week. We give especial attention to this class of work and our prices are reasonable.

GEO. C. LANG, Graduate Watchmaker and Optician.

BOTH TELEPHONES BARTON, VERMONT